

ALUMNI CAPITAL NETWORK

Alumni Capital Network (ACN) is a unique private equity firm launched by former Accenture partners who provide equity, expertise and execution capabilities to create value for middle market companies. Collectively, we delivered billions of dollars of incremental revenues and profits for Fortune 1000 clients and participated in over one hundred PE transactions. ACN brings the same proven methodologies, industry insights and contacts to elevate the strategies, operations and financial performance of its portfolio companies to the next level.

EQUITY. EXPERTISE. EXECUTION.

Equity

- We invest valuable knowledge capital along with financial capital
- We collaborate with portfolio company management and co-investors to create mutually advantageous deal structures and performance incentives

Expertise

- The ACN Network brings deep industry, business process and technology skills: more than a thousand years of management, operations and consulting experience
- The ACN Network includes experts in: strategy, marketing, sales, customer service, supply chain, manufacturing, finance, human resources, and information technology

Execution

- Our collaborative approach enables our portfolio companies to generate superior returns by achieving exceptional performance improvements
- Members of the ACN Network work side-by-side with management to increase efficiency, improve scalability and deliver better value to customers

About Us

Investment Criteria

- EBITDA of $2 - $25+ million
- Revenues of $10 - $250+ million
- Industries include: business services, consumer, financial services, industrial, healthcare, technology, outsourcing, retail and transportation & logistics
- We partner with management who aspire to lead their companies to the next level
- We maintain a controlling interest and provide significant incentives for management
- We seek underperforming companies where we can leverage our operational expertise to improve growth and profitability

The ACN Advantage

- We are an operationally-focused investor who helps companies grow and create long term sustainable value
- We build long term relationships with management teams the same way we did with clients at Accenture
- We quickly review opportunities and decisively complete transactions
- We bring outstanding financial clout to support portfolio companies and can leverage close partnerships with leading institutions for supplemental capital resources
